Welcome to our collage class! This six-week journey is designed for artists of all levels who want to dive into the fascinating world of collage.

Throughout the course, you will learn how to create your own original papers using different techniques, experiment with various papers, and explore both abstract and realistic styles. With hands-on projects and personalised guidance, you'll unlock your creativity and develop your unique artistic expression.

Join Harriet for a fun and inspiring experience that will elevate your collage art skills!

A materials list will be sent on enrolment (some materials are supplied)
